

Your Invitation

To help kick off the New Year, I want to personally invite you to the all-associate meeting on January 15, 2009. This is our first annual meeting for field management and home office associates, and I want you to learn about NFN's upcoming initiatives for 2009, in person. It is because of you that we play an integral role in Nationwide Financial's strategic focus, and with your help, we can continue to strengthen and develop our role within the Nationwide enterprise.
